That certain Declaration of Condominium of The Oceania, a Condominium, dated the 18th day of August, 2006, and recorded in the Probate Office of Baldwin County, Alabama, on August 21, 2006, as Instrument Number 995517, is hereby amended by deleting Article Twelve of said declaration, in its entirety, and substituting in its place and stead, the following:

ARTICLE TWELVE
Restrictions on Use, Occupancy and the Like

1. Restrictions on Use - The units and the common elements shall be restricted to residential uses, only. The association may issue rules regarding permitted business activities. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit the time sharing of any unit, which is expressly prohibited elsewhere in this declaration.

2. Restrictions on Occupancy - All units shall only be occupied by a single party at any one time, and at no time shall any portion of any unit be occupied by a separate party. No unit may be occupied at any one time by a number of persons in excess of the number permitted by the applicable zoning ordinance.

3. Restrictions on Renting and Leasing - [AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS]:

3. Provision Against Subdivision - The units of The Oceania, a Condominium, may not be subdivided.

4. Provision Against Amendment - [DELETED].

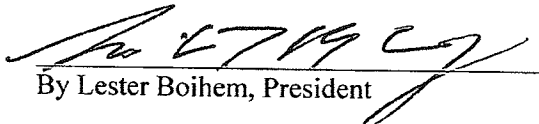

5. Restrictions on Alienation - There are no restrictions on alienation of the units.

6. Rules and Regulations - The unit owners' association may adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the condominium, in accordance with provisions therefor in its bylaws, the enforcement of which shall be as prescribed within said rules and regulations. It shall be the duty of each unit owner to familiarize himself or herself with the rules and regulations, and to make copies thereof available to everyone on the premises with his or her permission. The posting of a set of the rules and regulations permanently within a unit in a visible place shall be a sufficient compliance with this requirement. Unit owners shall be responsible to the unit owners' association and to the other owners for violation of the rules and regulations by those occupying their units with their permission. If any rule or regulation becomes the subject of litigation in any court, the losing party shall pay the attorney's fees of the prevailing party.
